

The Endowments of Boshruyeh in the light of religious beliefsElahizadeh, Mohammad Hasan ¹Edalati, Reza ²Arefnezhad, Abolghasem ³Abstract

For some reason common or ordinary ceremonies in one geographical region affects from the nature of people's ideology and then clarifies their viewpoints and cultural and civic incorporations. Among the past cultural and social characteristics of Boshruyeh region is the circulation of the culture of endowment and the plurality and verities of devotions. Doubtlessly one of the effective factors in the creation and circulation of this culture has been the religious beliefs and faith credence of people. Regarding the religious background of Boshruyeh in the era of Qajar and Pahlavi and the external entrance of Baha'ism in this territory, it is important to take into consideration the influence of this incidents in endowment culture and the plurality and verities of this devotions. This research by exploitation of descriptive-analytic methodology and qualitative-quantitative inspecting and analyzing of available documents and evidences and the endowments deeds and by using statistics and present figures, intended to respond to the research question and bring it to clarification that the said endowments apart from the quantitative and qualitative influences of intellectual and religious tendencies of two recent centuries, has been continued to its upswing natural growth.

Key Words: Endowment, Salve, Bequests, Shiite, Benefactor, Boshruyeh

1. Associate Professor in History of the University of Birjand, mhelahizadeh@birjand.ac.ir

2. MA Student in Shiite History of Payame Noor University of Mashhad, The responsible Author

3. Faculty Member of Payame Noor University of Neyshabour